Ancient Instrument Played

Music Well Received At Heard Museum

Heard Museum's small and artistic auditorium was filled to overflow yesterday afternoon with persons who came to hear a concert by the Phoenix Classic Guitar Society and Phoenix Chapter of the American Recorder Society.

Artists in the guitar group, organized six years ago, included John Tanno, president of the society; John Wetter, Ed Hamilton, and Earl Young. Recorder artists included Sanford Kaye, who organized the chapter here only four months ago; Ruth Kaye, Annette Pizer, and Judy Fredrick. Two groups of folk songs, with self-accompaniment by guitar, were presented by Soloist Barbara Stein, and Naomi and Vaughn Kalajan, performing as a duet.
